

Citation Exercise

Select quotes from the backup features in Watchmen and use them in-text. Reminder: the backup features are the short prose sections that follow the longer illustrated sections in each chapter.

Example:

7. In Doug Roth's Nova Express article “After the Masquerade: Superstyle and the Art of Humanoid Watching,” Adrian Veidt reveals that “you get to be a superhero by summoning the hero within you and summoning him or her forth by an act of will” (8).

- 1) Name the author of the Chapters 1 – 3 backup feature in a signal phrase.
- 2) Name the author of Chapter 4's backup feature in parentheses.
- 3) The author of Chapter 5's backup is unknown—how do you cite it if you're not quoting?
- 4) Imagine that Kara Thrace, Ellen Ripley, and Kate Austen had written Chapter 5's backup feature; quote them in text with a signal phrase and appropriate citation.
- 5) Imagine that Chapter 4's backup feature had been written by Peter Venkman, Raymond Stantz, Egon Spengler, and Winston Zeddemore. Quote them in text with a signal phrase and appropriate citation.
- 6) Cite them in parentheses.
